

I consider the signal from XM on local issues limited to weather and driving conditions to be superior to conventional radio. I therefore rely upon it and do not turn on the AM/FM stations, principally because of the junk they broadcast.

I support XM in its effort to secure FCC approval of these continued broadcast services provided that XM does not use commercial advertising with or in conjunction to such local issues.

Please note my comment and reply if further information is solicited.

Thank you.